DEPARTMENT OF STANDARDS MALAYSIA

DEVELOPMENT OF MALAYSIAN STANDARDS

The Department of Standards Malaysia is the national standards and accreditation body of Malaysia.

The main function of the Department of Standards Malaysia is to foster and promote standards, standardisation and accreditation as a means of advancing the national economy, promoting industrial efficiency and development, benefitting the health and safety of the public, protecting the consumers, facilitating domestic and international trade and furthering international cooperation in relation to standards and standardisation. The use of Malaysian Standards is voluntary except in so far as they are made mandatory by regulatory authorities by means of regulations, local by-laws or any other similar ways.

Malaysian Standards are developed through consensus by committees which comprise balanced representation of producers, users, consumers and others with relevant interests, as may be appropriate to the subject at hand. The development of a standard as a Malaysian Standard is governed by the Standards of Malaysia Act 1996 [Act 549]. Section 18A of the act stipulated that, all Malaysian Standards are owned by the Government of Malaysia and no part of a Malaysian Standard can be reproduced in any form without the written permission of the Director General.

National foreword

The adoption of the ISO Standard as a Malaysian Standard was recommended by the Technical Committee on Electrically Propelled Vehicle under the authority of the National Standards Committee on Transport.

This Malaysian Standard is identical with ISO 17840-4:2018, Road vehicles - Information for first and second responders Part 4: Propulsion energy identification, published by the International Organization for Standardization (ISO). However, for the purpose of this Malaysian Standard, the following apply:

- a) In the source text, “this International Standard” should read “this Malaysian Standard”;
- b) the comma which is used as a decimal sign (if any), to read as a point; and
- c) reference to International Standards should be replaced by corresponding Malaysian Standards as follows:

Referenced International Standards

Corresponding Malaysian Standard

ISO 17840-1, Road vehicles – Information for first and second responders – Part 1: Rescue sheet for passenger cars and light commercial vehicles

MS ISO 17840-1, Road vehicles – Information for first and second responders – Part 1: Rescue sheet for passenger cars and light commercial vehicles

ISO 17840-2, Road vehicles – Information for first and second responders – Part 2: Rescue sheet for buses, coaches and heavy commercial vehicles

MS ISO 17840-2, Road vehicles – Information for first and second responders – Part 2: Rescue sheet for buses, coaches and heavy commercial vehicles

ISO 17840-3, Road vehicles – Information for first and second responders – Part 3: Emergency response guide template

MS ISO 17840-3, Road vehicles – Information for first and second responders – Part 3: Emergency response guide template

Compliance with a Malaysian Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.

NOTE. IDT on the front cover indicates an identical standard i.e. a standard where the technical content, structure and wording (or is an identical translation) of a Malaysian Standard is exactly the same as in an International Standard or is identical in technical content and structure although it may contain the minimal editorial changes specified in clause 4.2 of ISO/IEC Guide 21-1:2005.
