DEPARTMENT OF STANDARDS MALAYSIA

DEVELOPMENT OF MALAYSIAN STANDARDS

The Department of Standards Malaysia (Standards Malaysia) is the national standardisation and accreditation body.

The main function of the Department is to foster and promote standards, standardisation and accreditation as a means of advancing the national economy, promoting industrial efficiency and development, benefiting the health and safety of the public, protecting the consumers, facilitating domestic and international trade and furthering international cooperation in relation to standards and standardisation.

Malaysian Standards are developed through consensus by committees which comprise of balanced representation of producers, users, consumers and others with relevant interests, as may be appropriate to the subject in hand. To the greatest extent possible, Malaysian Standards are aligned to or are adoption of international standards. Approval of a standard as a Malaysian Standard is governed by the Standards of Malaysia Act 1996 (Act 549). Malaysian Standards are reviewed periodically. The use of Malaysian Standards is voluntary except in so far as they are made mandatory by regulatory authorities by means of regulations, local by-laws or any other similar ways.

The Department of Standards appoints Malaysian Timber Industry Board as the agent to develop Malaysian Standards. The Department also appoints Malaysian Timber Industry Board as the agent for distribution and sale of Malaysian Standards.

Foreword

This Malaysian Standard was developed by the Working Group on Specification for Plywood under the authority of the Industry Standards Committee on Timber, Timber Products and Timber Structures.

Major modification in this revision is as follows:

- a) overall structure of the text has been changed, whereby the terms are listed in alphabetical order.

This Malaysian Standard cancels and replaces MS 228: 1991, Specification of plywood (First revision).

Compliance with a Malaysian Standard does not of itself confer immunity from legal obligations.
